Dear Sir:

We take pleasure in responding to your communication of November 12th. On a separate sheet you will find a list of articles from our American Journal of Numismatics, which might be of interest to you. Many of these are available in the back numbers of our American Journal and I have noted the price at which we should be glad to send them to you. I also enclose a list of our Numismatic Notes and Monographs of which you will note that No. 18 and 38 have to do with coinage of Mexico. We are planning to issue within the coming two months a number devoted to the Decorations and Medals of Honor issued by the South American republics, price $3.00. Do you have the Catalogue of the Guttag Collection? If you would let me know the other bibliographical material which you have, it is possible I could suggest additions, even though they may not have been published by our Society. With assurance of my willingness to be of further usefulness in any way that may present itself, I am

Very sincerely yours,
